

Department of Hotel Management

Symposium on ‘Research Methodology for Undergraduates.’

Tilak Maharashtra Vidyapeeth’s Department of Hotel Management had organized a Symposium titled ‘Research Methodology for Undergraduates’ on 1st March 2019.

The symposium focused on basic questions such as choosing a topic, concept, how to write research, how to plan field study, plagiarism etc. It important to have knowledge regarding Research as students of second and third year have Research Project as part of their Syllabus.

The eminent speakers invited for the symposium were Associate Professor Dr. Sameer Diwanji AISSMS, Associate Professor Dr. Siddharth Shimpi SSOU and Assistant Professor Dr. Sukhadha Bhingarkar MIT WPU. The inauguration was presided over by HOD, Department of Hotel Management, Dr. Suvarna Sathe followed by felicitation of the speakers by Dr. Suvarna Sathe.

Dr. Sameer Diwanji started the first session by explaining basic concepts of Research and how to choose a research topic. He spoke about various errors researchers make while writing research. Dr. Siddharth Shimpi spoke in depth about Research Methodology and explained the students why research is important and how to grow in this field. The last session was of Prof. Sukhada Bhingarkar who put forth a descriptive explanation on plagiarism and also elaborated on softwares used while writing research project or paper. The session was concluded with a

